S.i there came upon them trouble and destruction, even as trouble and destruction rime upon our land thirty years ago, following sufficient waiting time wherein the L rd of hosts seemed proving us if -n-would carry out the very principles avowed by the nation as being its foundation. For the immortal Declaration set forth that all men had an equal right to life and liberty, and the men who framed it appealed to God to witness the justice of their cause. But they failed to comprehend the full scope of their own words. They did not think that it referred to slaves, for then twelve out of thirteen colonies were slave holding. But in time it was forced upon the nation; and...
