He claims he hasn't changed his business, as he was a conductor when he played first violin. Mrs. Shaw, the whistler-- Look here, Mr. Manager, I want my money. Manager-- Oh, you will have to whistle for your salary. Ned Buckley was out, for a time this season, playing Paul Kauvar. In the company was a very tart leading lady, and some one asked Ned where he got her. She came with the manuscript, said Ned. Nick Roberts tells me that while playing his Humpty Dumpty company in a Texas town, and during the course of the pantomime, the audience and actors were astonished by a man yelling out, Louder. He proved to be deaf. Hugh Dougherty says that he once asked an impecunious acquaintance Why don't you get shaved? Haven't you got the price? The party in need of the razor, with a view to the next meal, responded: Yes, but I can't eat my whiskers. Some folks die young and some folks live to a ripe old age, but some of our female stars keep on forever. A company in the South, playing Hamlet, uses a tank for Ophelia to drown in. Let us have realism on the stage. Will McConnell says he always enjoyed a trip on the Hudson, gazing on the bluffs. They remind him so much of the actors. this isn't a bad house, said an agent to me the other night as he...
