Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Not illustrated. 1905 Excerpt: . or murder in the first or second degree, are sentenced to this Reformatory. The present Board assumed control of this institution in August, 1903. Upon assuming control the Board found irregularities existing that were detrimental to the interests of the State and of the inmates. From the report of the Board to this Committee the following is quoted: It was found that just claims due the State from contractors to the amount of several hundred dollars had not been collected, and that the labor of inmates had been furnished to certain contractors without charge. The facts were found and presented to the Board of Managers by the General Superintendent, October 29, 1903, as follows: INDIANA MANUFACTURING COMPANY. Unsettled labor account $1,198 88 Interest on overdue labor account 3,498 60 Due on extra labor furnished from July 1, 1896, to December 1, 1902, 19,545 days at 40 cents per day 7,818 00 $12,515 48 This amount, $12,515.48, was admitted by the contractors as due and immediate settlement was made, by an agreement for cash payment. In addition to this saving, the earnings from the contracts for the fiscal year ending October 31, 1904, are $10,990.22 in excess of what they were under the last complete year of the old administration. This is in the face of the fact that the same contracts were in force each year with practically the same number of inmates employed. The appropriations given by the Legislature have been carefully expended, the...
