I ask you to judge me by the enemies I have made. - Franklin D. Roosevelt Winston Churchill led the life that many men would love to live. He survived 50 gunfights and drank 20,000 bottles of champagne.And of course, by resisting Hitler, he saved Europe and perhaps the world. - Mark Riebling in Churchill s Finest Hour. It is time to finish retreating. Not one step back! Such should now be our main slogan. - Joseph Stalin One is widely considered America s greatest 20th century president. Another was voted the Greatest Briton of All Time by his own countrymen. The other is considered one of history s greatest tyrants. Each of the Big Three, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, and Joseph Stalin, led remarkably influential lives, and never before has history provided a better example of the old maxim that the enemy of my enemy is my friend. On one point though, the biographers and historians remain unanimous: Churchill led an astonishing life as a soldier, world statesman, historian and Noble Prize Laureate. When he died at 90 in 1965, one of the most important figures in modern history had left the stage. From providing some of the 20th century s greatest soundbytes to successfully navigating Great Britain to victory in World War II against great odds, Churchill was at the forefront of global events for decades, becoming one of the most influential Britons in...
