After a rocky start, private investigator Ned Fain s business is looking like it could be a success. At the same time, his feelings for Sylvi, his smart and sassy assistant, are growing stronger and he thinks there just might be a chance for him there. Then Carlota Abreu walks in: gorgeous, sexy and trouble with a capital T. An investigative reporter, Carlota has been working on a report about local gambling clubs. She tells Ned people are dying and something sinister is going on, and she needs his help. Even though she has no money to pay him, Ned is unable to resist the woman s appeal and finds himself drawn into a web of intrigue, and Sylvi s extreme displeasure.
