I belong to a family of which I may justly feel proud; my father, by long service in war, had obtained a superior rank in the cavalry; and at the age of fifteen I entered the Royal Normandy regiment of cavalry, in which he had served. The Prince de Chalais was my colonel, and I was made an officer, as having been six years a king s scholar in the royal college of Saint-Louis, at Metz; it was then a matter of right. That appointment, and the ancient hereditary honour transmitted in families from generation to generation, were my sole patrimony. The revolution, then, found me in this situation, too young to be its instrument, and yet old enough to choose between good and evil. I have thus been fortunate enough to pass through it, a stranger to the calamities which it so long inflicted.
