G. Mansel, Esq., Resident at Nagpore, to J. P. Grant, Esq., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department. I deeply regret to have to report for the information of the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council that His Highness the Maharaja of Nagpore expired after six o'clock this morning breathing his last breath in my presence. His Highness had been ailing for this last month, but no danger was apprehended till about 4 A. M., when the symptoms became more and more alarming. A messenger was sent to the Residency at sunrise and I immediately went down; but His Highness was then past all mortal aid or counsel. About twenty-five or six days since the Rajah was indisposed for five days from fever. He was becoming better, but with the imprudence of his character would assume...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
