

The Crisis of Christendom: 1815-2005: A History of Christendom (Vol. 6) (Paperback)

By Warren H Carroll, Anne Carroll

Christendom Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The Crisis of Christendom is the sixth and final volume of Dr. Warren H. Carroll s history of Christendom. It is concerned with the crises, or turning points, in the diseases which plagued humanity during the modern era. The book discusses in detail Nazi and Japanese militarism and its crisis in World War II, the inhuman system of Communism and its fall in 1989, and the origins and consequences of the denial of human dignity in the modern culture of death. Carroll shows the power of evil in the twentieth century, but focuses also on the great popes, in particular Pope John Paul II, and the great apparitions of the Marian Century. He ends with a call to hope and action. As did earlier volumes in this sweeping series, The Crisis of Christendom reflects an unabashedly Christian and Catholic view of history, taking as one of its major themes the centrality of the Papacy to the destiny of the West. Dr. Carroll holds that God and individual men and women, not impersonal social and economic forces, make history. The characters and actions...
